

Biggest individual gifts to Indiana organizations

In 2019, publicly announced gifts of $1 million or more from 45 donors totaled more than $411.6 million.

Donor	Gift	Recipient	For	Donor background
Pulte family (family fund)	$111 million	University of Notre Dame	support for the school's efforts to address poverty, including scholarships for students in need, endowments for various positions, and support for the Pulte Institute for Global Development and the Pulte Endowment for Excellence for Global Affairs	Bill Pulte, who died in 2018, founded Pulte Homes. His widow, Karen, serves on the family foundation's board.
Fred Luddy	$60 million	Indiana University	creation of the Luddy Center for Artificial Intelligence, which will be housed in the School of Informatics, Computing and Engineering	Former student who dropped out in 1973 and later received an honorary degree. Luddy is founder of California-based ServiceNow, which offers cloud-based, automated IT help-desk services.
Paul O'Neill	$30 million	Indiana University	programming support at the School of Public and Environmental Affairs, which was renamed for O'Neill	alumnus, former U.S. secretary of the treasury and former CEO of Pittsburgh-based Alcoa
Robert and Sara Lumpkins	$25 million	University of Notre Dame	creation of the Lucy Family Institute for Data & Society	alumnus, and former chief financial officer of Minnesota-based Cargill Inc.; and his wife, who is an alumna of Saint Mary's College
John and Mollie Baumer	$20 million	University of Notre Dame	new men's residence hall named Baumer Hall	alumnus, and a senior partner at a Los Angeles private equity firm; and his wife, who is an alumna of St. Mary's College
Sidney and Lois Eskenazi	$20 million	Indiana University	scholarships, faculty development, and academic and research programs at the School of Art, Architecture + Design, which was renamed for the couple	alumni, Indianapolis philanthropists and real estate developers
anonymous	$15 million	Purdue University	new football training facility named Kozuch Football Performance Complex	not applicable
Ward and Kathy Fitzgerald	$15 million	University of Notre Dame	creation of the Fitzgerald Institute for Real Estate, to research real estate investment and development	alumnus, and CEO and senior managing principal of Philadelphia-based Exeter Property Group; and his wife
Anthony and Christie de Nicola	$10 million	University of Notre Dame	support of student programs at the Center for Ethics and Culture, which was renamed for the de Nicolas	president and managing partner of a New York private investment firm; and his wife
Nils Nelson (bequest)	$8 million	Purdue University Northwest	Scholarships and professorships. The Nils K. Nelson Bioscience Innovation Building under construction at PU Northwest in Hammond was named in honor of the gift.	retired organic chemistry professor at Purdue University Northwest who died in 2017
anonymous (bequest pledge)	$6.25 million	DePauw University	merit-based Rector Scholarship	alumni couple
Charles G. Koch (foundation)	$5.9 million (1)	Indiana University	creation of the Institute for Entrepreneurship & Competitive Enterprise within the Johnson Center for Entrepreneurship & Innovation	co-owner of Koch Industries
Samuel Allen	$5 million	Purdue University	endowment of a deanship and redesign of the business school's curriculum	alumnus, and CEO of Illinois-based John Deere
Sandra Eskenazi	$5 million	Eskenazi Health	Mental health services. In honor of the gift, the Midtown Community Mental Health Division of Eskenazi has been renamed the Sandra Eskenazi Mental Health Center.	Indianapolis philanthropist and daughter of Sidney and Lois Eskenazi, for whom the hospital system is named.
Craig Fenneman and Mary Stover-Fenneman	$5 million	Butler University	scholarship endowment, and support for sciences-complex renovation and new business-school construction	alumnus, and former owner of 76 regional Taco Bell franchises; and his wife
John and Donna Krenicki	$5 million	Purdue University	support for the Krannert School of Management's business analytics center, which was renamed for the Krenickis	alumnus, and senior operating partner for a New York private equity investment firm; and his wife
John and Cathy Martin	$5 million	University of Notre Dame	endowment of the associate provost for innovation position	alumnus, and retired co-CEO and founding partner of Chicago-based Antares Capital; and his wife
Allen R. Reed and Dede Rippetto-Reed (estate)	$5 million	Indiana University	support for the Maurer School of Law	alumnus of the Maurer School of Law, and director and corporate legal counsel for Charles Schwab; and his wife
Kimberly and John Simpson	$5 million	IU Eskenazi Museum of Art	creation of The Kimberly and John Simpson Center for Education	married alumni, and Bloomington home renovators and landlords
Alexandra Page Clark (bequest)	$4.5 million	Vincennes University Foundation	nursing and music scholarships	former assistant research scientist in New York University's Department of Biology who died in 2017
anonymous	$4.2 million	Indiana University	did not disclose	not applicable
Jane Fortune (bequest)	$4 million	Sidney and Lois Eskenazi Museum of Art at Indiana University	creation of the Dr. Jane Fortune Endowment for Women Artists and the Dr. Jane Fortune Fund for Virtual Advancement of Women Artists	founder of not-for-profit Advancing Women Artists who died in 2018
Nycha Schlegel and Dallas "Bill" Loos	$4 million (1)	Indiana University	programming support in the School of Education, IU Libraries, the Kelley School of Business and the Wells Scholar Program	Married alumni. Loos is CEO of Connecticut-based cable manufacturer Loos & Co.
Gerald and Marjorie Morgan (estate)	$3.1 million	University of Indianapolis	creation of the Gerald and Marjorie Morgan Endowed Professorship of European History	Alumnus, and U.S. army veteran; and his wife. Gerald died in 2007 and Marjorie died in 2017.
Toni Murray	$3 million	University of Saint Francis	Expansion of the Achatz Hall of Science. The wing was named the John & Toni Murray Research Center in honor of the gift.	alumna, retired teacher and former co-owner of Waynedale-based Industrial Tool Grinding
Peggy Miller (estate)	$2.4 million	Goodwill Foundation of Central & Southern Indiana	establishment of the Miller Family Fund for Success, which will help support Goodwill's education, health and employment programs	bilingual secretary for multiple airlines, hospital executive assistant and longtime volunteer who died in 2018
Efroymsen family (family fund)	$2 million	Butler University	Hinkle Fieldhouse renovation and athletic scholarships	Indianapolis philanthropists
Jim Perschbacher	$2 million (1)	Indiana University	support of Kelley School of Business students studying abroad	alumnus, and former CFO of North American operations for Atlanta-based Birla Carbon, a manufacturer of carbon black additives
Scott Schurz	$2 million (2)	Kinsey Institute at Indiana University	creation of the Kinsey Institute Bicentennial Endowed Chair to support research and education on human sexuality and relationships	chairman of Schurz Communications
Jeffrey Wolin	$1.57 million (3)	IU Eskenazi Museum of Art	current and future photographs by Wolin	Ruth N. Halls professor emeritus of photography and founder of the Center for Integrative Photographic Studies at IU Eskenazi School of Art
Donald Campbell	$1.5 million	IUPUI	endowment of the Donald A. Campbell Chair in Fundraising Leadership at the IU Lilly Family School of Philanthropy	founder of Chicago-based fundraising and marketing firm Campbell & Co.
Stanley and Allison Chen	$1.5 million	International School of Indiana	lead gift of the capital campaign to build an elementary school, to be named the Chen Family Lower School Building	CEO of Carmel-based Telamon Corp., and his wife
Betsy Fife	$1.5 million	IUPUI	endowment of a chemistry department chair in honor of her late husband, IUPUI professor Wilmer Fife	alumna, and emeritus faculty member of the IUPUI School of Nursing
Michael and Linda Mussallem	$1.5 million	Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology	pavilion construction	alumnus, and CEO and chairman of Los Angeles-based medical-device maker Edwards Lifesciences; and his wife
Theodore "Tim" Solso	$1.5 million	DePauw University	support of The Rector Scholarship	alumnus, and retired chairman of General Motors
Elizabeth Pfeffer Allen (bequest)	$1.1 million	DePauw University	Roy O. West Library renovation	alumna who died in August
Danita and Robert Forgey	$1.08 million	Indiana University	IUPUI School of Informatics and Computing scholarships, and support for the IU Summer Theatre program in Bloomington	Married alumni. Danita runs a coding and reimbursement consulting business.
Huntington family (bequest)	$1 million (4)	Marian University	Unrestricted. The building that houses Marian's two-year college, Saint Joseph's College of Marian University-Indianapolis, was renamed Huntington Family Hall in honor of the gift.	Owners of Indianapolis-based AAA Roofing Co. Inc. Family matriarch Mary Ann Busemeyer Huntington, a Marian College alumna, died in March.
anonymous	$1 million	Earlham College	support for an annual fund in honor of Robert Southard, a former Jewish studies professor who died in 2007	not applicable
anonymous	$1 million	Goshen Theater	auditorium renovation	not applicable
Patricio and Kelly Daneri	$1 million	International School of Indiana	support for the capital campaign to build an elementary school	Midwest region managing director for Energy Harness Corp., and his wife
June Enoch (foundation bequest)	$1 million	Fort Wayne Museum of Art	establishment of the June E. Enoch Collection Fund, to acquire and protect artwork	retired associate professor of education at Manchester University who died in 2017
Larry and Brenda McDaniel	$1 million	Indiana University	creation of a space for veteran and military-connected students	alumnus, U.S. Navy veteran and former executive for Ohio-based Marathon Petroleum
Sean and Erin McGould	$1 million	Butler University	support for the business school investment room, which was named the McGould Investment Room	Married alumni. Sean is CEO of Florida-based Lighthouse Investment Partners LLC.
Martha and David Moore	$1 million	IU Eskenazi Museum of Art	creation of the Martha and David Moore Prints, Drawings, and Photographs Study room	founders of Pictura Gallery in Bloomington

(1) received in 2018 but announced in 2019 (2) received in 2017 but announced in 2019 (3) artwork value (4) Gift is more than $1 million, but Marian University did not disclose the exact amount.

Sources: IBJ research, The Chronicle of Philanthropy