

New era at the Stutz

The first floor of the renovated Stutz Motor Car Co. factory complex, 1060 N. Capitol Ave., includes a taco shop, a bar, a plant store and new locations of Cafe Patachou and Amelia's Bread.

Business/status

- A Myriad Yoga/opening in July
Moving from Ninth Street and Capitol Avenue. In addition to yoga on the east side of the Stutz, Myriad will offer crossfit, bootcamp and weightlifting in the northwest corner.
- B Artist I, II and III/opening in August
A committee will choose from applicants specializing in fields such as fine art, fashion design and music to use spaces whose residencies run mid-August to mid-May.
- C Photo studio/opening in July
Rental space for photo sessions of 90 minutes and longer.
- D St'Artup 317/opening in July
A local lifestyle brand is expected to be the first occupant of this business incubator. A second St'Artup 317 spot will open this fall on the west side of the complex.
- E Pattern/opening in July
The not-for-profit creative agency and print magazine that launched in 2010 serves as public art director at the Stutz.
- F Grounded Plant & Floral Co./opened in May
Purdue University alum Amanda Griffith opened the original Grounded Plant & Floral Co. in 2017.
- G Sculpture/to be installed next year
An outdoor 3D art installation commissioned in conjunction with the city's Public Art for Neighborhoods Program. Artists submitted proposals earlier this year.

- H Industrious/opened in January
New York-based coworking company with room for 350 members in private offices, shared workspaces and conference rooms. Also has Mass Ave and Carmel locations.
- I Amelia's Bread/opened May 31
Third location of Amelia's Bread. Fletcher Place bakery opened in 2012; Windsor Park shop opened in 2021.
- J Barista Parlor/opening in July
Coffee shop has eight locations in Nashville and one in Louisville. Stutz edition will feature a glossy white bar that replicates the oval of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway.
- K Stutz Car Museum/opened in January
Museum showcases nine cars on loan from the collection of Turner Woodard, who sold a majority stake in the Stutz complex to real estate investment firm SomeraRoad Inc. in 2021.

- L Turner's Bar/opening June 2
Named in tribute to Woodard. Retro tavern showcases auto-racing decor, a pool table and signs advertising Old Style and Rheingold beer. Managed by Sahm Hospitality Group.
- M Julieta Taco Shop/opening in July
Founded by Milktooth chefs Esteban Rosas and Gabriel Sanudo. Shares its name with Sanudo's grandmother. Seats 16. A service window connects to Turner's Bar.
- N VisionLoft Events/opened in August 2022
Event venue can accommodate 425 guests. Second location; first opened in Mass Ave in 2018.
- O Cafe Patachou/opening in July
Flagship concept of Martha Hoover's Won't Stop Hospitality Inc. One of three Cafe Patachou spots opening this year, adding to the five currently operating in central Indiana.